6 The Greater East Asia War: A Strategic Analysis

The Japanese take on China, America and the British Empire in one of the most epic military campaigns in history.

by Joseph Miranda

21 Joachim von Ribbentrop: Imbecile or Foreign Policy Colossus?

The Third Reich's foreign minister is still a controversial figure: did he single-handedly start World War II or was he merely a pawn of Adolf Hitler?

by Blaine Taylor

33 Naval Strategy in the Mediterranean Theater of Operations 1939-45

Axis and Allied forces clash in a struggle for control of the Mediterranean air and sea lanes.

by David Higgins

48 Med War Post-Mortem

Lost opportunities in the European Theater of Operations's greatest air-naval campaign.

by Joseph Miranda

52 Skorzeny Strikes: Coup in Budapest, 1944

As the Red Army approached Hungary, Hitler's top commando made a daring strike into Budapest and took over the government.
