Famous Divisions: Guards Armoured

The British Army's Guards Armoured Division was certainly one of the more famous ones to have fought in the war. Here we offer an analysis as to whether it was also truly an "elite" division.

The Fall of Hong Kong

The fall of Hong Kong to the Japanese was undoubtedly foreordained by the larger geo-strategic situation around it. As our analysis shows, however, it should've been a far harder nut for those attackers to crack than it turned out to be.

Portfolio: The Waffen SS in Color

We present a pictorial view, via captured official wartime artwork, of how the soldiers of the Waffen SS viewed themselves. Your view will vary from theirs.

Vlasov's Army

Was the Red Army's Gen. Andrei Vlasov truly a traitor to the Allied cause, as a military court reaffirmed in 2001, or was he simply a Russian ahead of his time? Here's our analysis.
