Forlorn Battles

East Prussia 1944–1945

Disasters in the west rocked Germany in the summer of 1944, but the worst came in the east where the massive Soviet Operation Bagration wrecked Army Group Center. Within three months Germany had lost thousands of square miles and the war had reached their frontier in East Prussia.

Alam Hafa

By the end of June 1942, Erwin Rommel's Afrika Korps was just 90 miles west of Alexandria, Egypt. It appeared he was poised to seize victory in North Africa, he just needed to breach the British and Commonwealth defenses at Alam Hafa.

Vacillation

German Operational Indecision During Barbarossa

The German invasion of the Soviet Union in 1941 achieved stunning initial success and it appeared the Soviets would fall like all previous German opponents. Indecision gripped the German high command and played a critical role in Germany's failure to achieve victory.
